Image by: Flew Designs

Story starter!

- The water was rising. Soon, everything would be underwater.
- The thousands of lights that sparkled against the dark backdrop of the colossal skyscrapers were being extinguished one by one, as the monstrous buildings were gradually disappearing under the dark tides; banished to a watery grave beneath the lonely depths.
- Nobody knew what had caused the great flood. There had not been time to stop and think.

Image by: Flew Designs

Sentence challenge!

- Which two of these sentences are statements? Which are questions? Which are commands?
- The turtle has a green shell.
- Look at his beak!
- Where has the water come from?
- The city is disappearing beneath the water.
- Watch out for the waves!

Image by: Flew Designs

Question time

- Who is the diver? What is he doing?
- What caused the water to rise?
- Where have all the people gone?
- What do you think the mermaid thinks about the recent events?
- Do you think there might be a real city somewhere under the ocean, waiting to be discovered?

Image by: Flew Designs

Sick sentences!

These sentences are ‘sick’ and need help to get better. Can you help?

- The water rose. Buildings all over the city went under the sea. A turtle swam through the water.

Image by: Flew Designs

Perfect picture!

Imagine your school was underwater. Draw or describe what one of your lessons would look like.