

Nursery

The Nursery children brought of their families. We spoke photographs and their mem groups.

Past and

Seaside in the P

Sorting

Seas

Reception

12.11.22 The Life of Sir David Attenborough

David was born in May 1926.	In 1945 he went to University to study zoology and geology.	In 1954 he launched the first BBC nature programme.	In 1978 he started the TV show Life on Earth.
-----------------------------	---	---	---

...logs that have happened (in the past and in 14th September, 2022

 ...do children play with nowadays?
 ...is my favourite toy?
 I can:
 - Learn about changes within living memory - by exploring toys from today.

My Favourite Toy

My favourite toy is my doll.
 It is made out of plastic.
 I like it because it had a book in the bag.
 like because book

Wednesday 14th September, 2022
 What toys do children from the past play with?
 What were toys from the past made from?
 I can:
 - Learn about changes within living memory - by exploring toys from the past.
 - Understand some of the ways in which we find out about the past - by identifying different sources.
 - Use sources - to ask and answer questions in the context of finding out about toys from the past.

A toy from the past

a yow yow out of v you' baws m's hands

...the world... The is far... She is living the... my granddaddy... Sweden... plant. But about... my... climate change... the world from... getting warmer... the world... world leaders.

...answer the question... Who has done more for our world? Why? we decided to have a vote and then explained our reasons for our choice! Here are our findings.

Wednesday 2nd November, 2022
 ...things that have happened (in the past and in my lifetime).
 Group / Supported

In 1925, Jane was born and her father gave her a cuddly toy chimpanzee - called Jubilee.	In 1967, she began to study the chimpanzees in Gombe in Tanzania.	In 1977, the Jane Goodall Institute was founded - to continue her work on studying the chimpanzees.
--	---	---

Finish this sentence:
 Nowadays, Jane... people... her... life

Year 1

100

Year 3

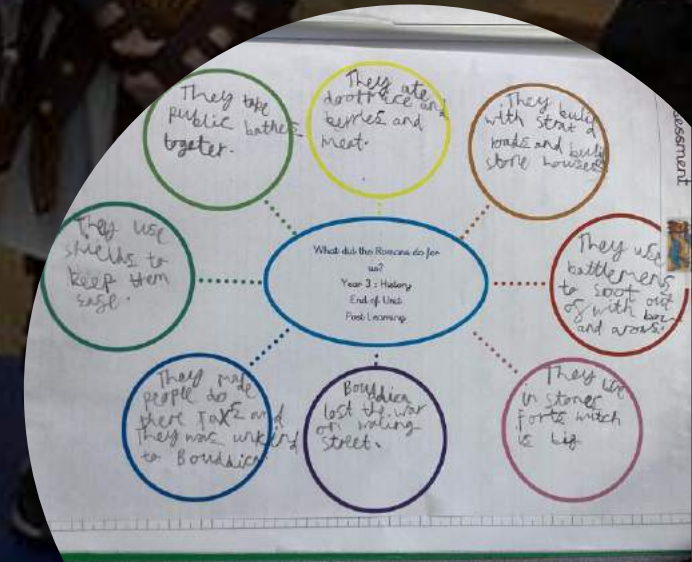

How did the Bronze Age move into the Iron Age?

Key historical skills: Change and continuity

Explain what had changed in the Bronze and Iron Ages (change) and what had stayed the same (continuity)

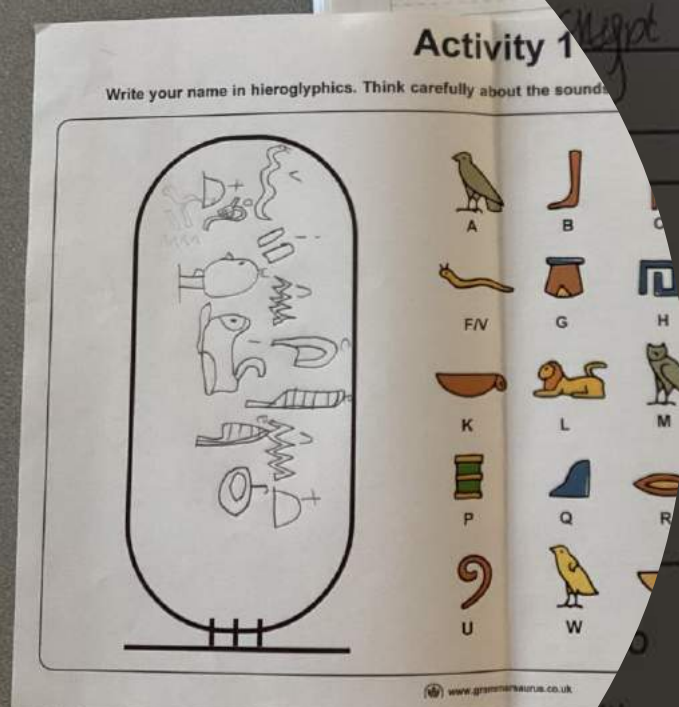

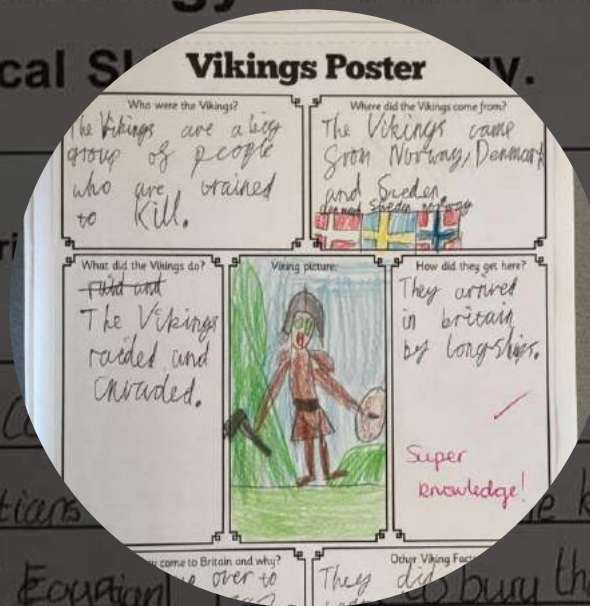

Age	Change	Continuity
Bronze Age (2000 BCE – 800 BCE)	The materials they made the weapons from. They mixed copper + tin to make bronze.	Still needed the clo and weapons they still hunted and
Iron Age (800 BCE – 43 AD)	Only rich people used tools. Poor people used	Quality of the tools. How to make iron.

Chronology of Ancient Egypt

Historical Significance

Year 4

2630 BCE
Ancient Egyptians built the first Egyptian pyramid

332 BCE
Alexander the Great conquers Egypt.

Egypt became a province of Rome

2550 BCE
Pyramids in Giza are built

WARTIME

In 1939, life was very expensive so they had to get to the cinema for some money. If the summer was popular months, the boys had to go to the cinema to get some money. The boys in the shop to get some money.

ENTERTAINMENT

In 1939, life was very expensive so they had to get to the cinema for some money. If the summer was popular months, the boys had to go to the cinema to get some money. The boys in the shop to get some money.

Var II Pre-Les Mind Map

BLITZ GASMASKS

The government was afraid that if the Germans were going to use bombs that would be poisonous gas. Luckily they didn't.

BLACKOUT

To prevent bombs during night, they turn all the lights off and cover their windows with black things. This is called "Blackout".

FOOD

Other food could include: corn, peas, potatoes, carrots, cabbages, and other vegetables. Also, some people would eat blackberries, raspberries, and other wild fruits.

WEAPONS

The soldiers fought with iron, steel, and daggers. They used long spears, the handaxe, which they swung around the body, and then in every rank they fought on foot. It was a very hard fight.

War II

In September 1939, Hitler started bombing London and other big cities such as Birmingham, Manchester, Liverpool, and Bristol, in the hope that Britain would surrender. This began the 6 month period known as the Blitz.

War II

The government was afraid that the Germans were going to use bombs that would be poisonous gas. Luckily they didn't.

War II

The government was afraid that the Germans were going to use bombs that would be poisonous gas. Luckily they didn't.

War II

The government was afraid that the Germans were going to use bombs that would be poisonous gas. Luckily they didn't.

War II

The government was afraid that the Germans were going to use bombs that would be poisonous gas. Luckily they didn't.

War II

The government was afraid that the Germans were going to use bombs that would be poisonous gas. Luckily they didn't.

World War II

Year 5

It is a very hard fight. The soldiers fought with iron, steel, and daggers. They used long spears, the handaxe, which they swung around the body, and then in every rank they fought on foot. It was a very hard fight.

Wartime jobs...

Other facts I know...

That the Queen helped fix up a that they use

War II

The government was afraid that the Germans were going to use bombs that would be poisonous gas. Luckily they didn't.

War II

The government was afraid that the Germans were going to use bombs that would be poisonous gas. Luckily they didn't.

Look in as n

What a

A te

and room

Why do you think it was built?

ing stugg or burying peop

28 June 1491
28 Jan 1547

Catherine of Aragon

HENRY

THE 8th

He had three kids: Elizabeth I, Edward VI, Mary I

Early life:

Henry was born on the 28th of June 1491.

His brother Arthur died at 15, Henry was only 10.

He was fluent in Latin and French and he could speak some Ancient Greek and Spanish.

Henry received an excellent education from some of the best tutors in Europe.

Henry and his six wives:

Henry the 8th had six wives; Catherine of Aragon, Anne Boleyn, Jane Seymour, Anne of Cleves, Catherine Howard and Catherine Parr.

Jane Seymour

How do you think it was made?

they pulled them up with rope

(primary source of evidence? Explain.)

ure of what was more in the future.

Year 6

this picture can tell us about the Maya?

they lived with different things

If you could speak to Frederick Catherwood or John Lloyd Stephens, what would you like to ask about the picture or the things in it?

how did they get the

Also known as Ixchel, Rain, Face, Goddess, and Goddess

Appearance: either a young girl or an old woman, who isn't as nice

Her husband was the god Itzamna.

She is the goddess of midwifery and medicine, the goddess of gold, of the moon, fertility, weaving and workers.

At times, she is depicted as the goddess.

She is the most powerful goddess.

Ixchel was linked to numerous rituals were as important as in the Mayan world.

The islands of Cozumel and Tulum have temples dedicated to Ixchel.

Pupil Voice

History is learning about the past a long time ago"

It's interesting because it's about the Stone Age and how we got to exist in the Stone Age. Stone age was really cold. They made spears

We've been learning about old toys. Old toys are made out of wood or string or glass.

It tells you about the past. History helps you learn new things.

About Samuel Pepys. He had a diary and no one can read it.

I enjoy history because you get to learn about stuff that's happened a long time ago in England in the past.

